Clues To I.D. jews: Add The Too-Wide Mouth

Clues To ID Jews

Add This To The List: The Too-Wide Mouth

Yes, their big mouths help give many jews away. It's only right.

By the way, I wonder who originated the phrase about a wide smile being “ear to ear”?

“Ear to ear” is an impossibility, of course. But many jew smiles go almost to that extreme. They go even with the outside corners of the eyes.

That extreme smile usually grows out of an already too-wide mouth. Probably, you know it when you see it. But most Whites are so used to seeing the wide-mouths on tv pretending to be Whites that our Whites have become conditioned to think we have a lot of Whites with those mutant mouths.

Caution: This too-wide mouth is a clue, not a conclusion. And it only applies to a portion of the many jews trying to pass as Whites. The other races — Mongoloids (Asians and American Indians), Africans, Arabs, and their mixtures — include many mouths of extreme width. But Whites rarely, if ever, display such an extreme, according to my accumulated observations. (I invite examples to the contrary, with links to photos.)

In my own case, and to my knowledge about known Whites, our mouths are not wide and our smiles don’t go past the pupils.

Examples

John C. Beale, a fraudster near the top of the global-warming hoax. He was recently convicted of financial fraud from the C.I.A. for more than $900,000 — according to jewsmedia reports. Surely he is a jew, but the media are silent on that point, so he is a secret jew — crypto-jew.

— John C. Beale, crypto-jew

Here's a known jew: boy actor Cameron Boyce. Don't let the freckles throw you off. The hair, eyebrows, eyes, and too-wide mouth add up to say "enemy jew."

— Cameron Boyce, actor, jew, of the tv show "Mirrors" I have not seen.

Here's another known jew: actor Ron Perlman. Behind that wide mouth is a giant mouth cavity, which we can guess is from the African DNA that is a significant part of the mongrel DNA of jews.

— Ron Perlman, actor, jew

Look at Perlman's family, below. Apparently, he married an African. Thus, their children are black jews. They will, of course, claim to be "African Americans." But let's be clear: They are not Americans, which is a term for members of the founding race of the country called the U.S.A. They are jews who are half-Africans who are wrongly allowed to live in our country.

When not pictured with their jew father, it is very likely their jewness will be left out of all references to them as individuals, and they will not describe themselves as jews. Thus, the children are crypto-jews. By the way, African DNA is closer to gorilla DNA than White is to African. On this point and much more, I highly recommend reading Richard Fuerle's book Erectus Walks Amongst Us linked on the WhiteSchool page of this site.

A Stretch?

Now, lets take this wide-mouth clue into potentially controversial territory.

Clint Eastwood. I have never seen anyone suggest that Eastwood is a jew. But let me ask: Why has jewlywood protected him from media vilification over his dirty "private" life? Why has jewlywood glorified him? Why do his movies always glorify members of other races while always portraying White perpetrators? In his movies, why does he so frequently mate with nonWhites? His movies are anti-White propaganda. Every one of them. Typically, he is the lone supposedly White man against other supposed Whites who are mostly if not all bad men. And then he made the propaganda movie glorifying Nelson Mandela, a murderous terrorist tool of the jews in South Africa (recently, finally deceased).

Thus, although we have a mountain of career and personal-life clues toward Eastwood being a crypto-jew, it seems that we have no physical clues to Eastwood being a jew. But have you ever seen an unguarded, fully released smile by Eastwood? The following photos were very likely not unguarded, full-out smiles because they all seem posed for publicity purposes. Nonetheless, consider the width of the smiles.

- Clint Eastwood, left to right, from young to old. At right, the old eyes and mouth remind me of the old Paul Newman, a known jew.

Is Clint Eastwood a crypto-jew? I do not know. My guess, though on thin ice as it is based on only one physical clue, is yes.

If he is a crypto-jew, Eastwood would be very far from the first Hollywood jew not expressing (to cameras) any of the historically recognized physical features of jews. Do a search on a phrase such as “early Hollywood jewish actors” and get some surprises. More and more of them are being admitted on popular sites and obscure sites. Note: I put “jewish” in that phrase because Google and other jewed search engines often block results on a search for “jew,” which is a term the jews do not want us non-jews to use. Such blockages vary by country, too.

Mary Tyler Moore. Another among the very many cases of wide-mouths in jewlywood is this one, who got to have a sitcom named after her. So did jew Roseanne while most of us had no idea that Roseanne Barr is a jew. MTM was surrounded by other jews on her show, including the well known jews Ed Asner and Valerie Harper. Cloris Leachman, although wikipedia (owned and operated by jews) wants to keep her jewness a secret, is surely a crypto-jew. This linked site says so, though pretends that “jewish” is a religion not a race.

- Mary Tyler Moore, lifelong darling of jewlywood. At left, note the too-wide mouth. At right, the old, facelifted actress’s mouth looks increasingly jewy. Nose-changing and facelifting are most common among jews, the supremely deceitful and vain race.

So, is Mary Tyler Moore a crypto-jew? I do not know. I guess yes. This good linked site says she had a jew paternal grandfather. Whatever the source of that information, it smells of trying to limit the jew content of someone who has been undeniably outed in their ancestry. Likewise, Hillary Clinton, who has attempted to minimize her own jewness.

Before we leave Hollywood for the time being, I should provide this caution: Don't automatically believe the jews' stories about their parentage and childhoods, nor should we automatically believe any biographical info on actors and other celebrities of the jew-owned entertainment industry. Deceit against all other races is what the jews have, historically, always done.

Richard "Dick" Cheney. Leaving jewlywood for jewington DC, we find many more cases of wide-mouth liars and criminals. A high-level example is this former vice president. Cheney is usually seen as a bad White deliberately serving jewry. Look again. By his record, behavior, and mouth ye shall know him.

Crypto-jews are infesting our entire country. Now, we can identify them like never before because we have the Internet with fine websites featuring photos of thousands of known jews. After you look at many photos and videos of known jews, you will get a good handle on the main varieties of jews and their identifying features.

Two good sites of photos of many jews:

- Jewish Faces <http://jewishfaces.com>.
- Who Controls America? <http://thezog.info>.

Then, take a closer look at your local politicians, bankers, insurers, reporters and editors, doctors and hospital administrators, teachers and professors and school administrators, union leaders, lawyers, travel agency owners, furniture store owners, department store owners, and more. You will see enemy jews among them no matter what town you are in.

You know, if all jews had brown or black skin, we would have figured this out long ago and rightly extinguished them for all time. But their mongrelized DNA includes genes for white skin, giving many of the jews a strong chance to deceive us and pass as Whites.

Priority: get familiar with the physical features of the most common jews.

A Guide To Identifying jews

— Dick Cheney. His deeds say jew. His mouth suggests jew. Jewry protects and glorifies him. Is he a jew?

WHO'S REALLY IN CONTROL?

- Funny and True. Nine kinds of rat-faced jews. Each of the nine begins with the same caricature of the classic hooknosed, slant-foreheaded, thick-lipped jew. With only different hair and glasses, they bear resemblances to some of the famous and infamous. Top row, right: Brent Musburger, longtime sportscaster. Middle row, left: radio and tv scum jew Howard Stern. Bottom row, left: dead jew lawyer turned sportscaster Howard Cosell, supreme promoter of Africans in our White-invented sports in the USA. Or perverted jew Marv Albert, a stupid, grammar-corrupting sportscaster. Who do you see in those images above?

Here's a quick summary of the easiest-to-recognize physical features of most jews. Common jews exhibit one or more of them. From the top:

- thick, curly black hair. Why was heavy hair gel made "popular" since the beginnings of movies and tv? Because jews were trying to tame those curls and needed other races to use the goop, too, to give the jews cover.

- marked forehead slant.
- a convex nose, especially the “hook” nose where the sharpest bend is in the bottom half. Why has jewlywood featured so many shows and plots about plastic surgery? Because jews write what they know and do, and the number of doctored jew noses is uncountable.
- the bottom end of the nose hangs lower than the bottom of the base of the nose.
- thick lips.
- a peculiar, “devious” curl to the corners of the mouth.
- from the back and side, the appearance of a short-necked lizard-like back lacking the “s”-curve of the White spine.
- short in height. Often, the legs are disproportionately short compared with the torso — also a common characteristic in the Mongoloid race.

There are other characteristics that are harder to describe, such as the look about the eyes of very many jews, the walk (which jew Charlie Chaplin exaggerated), hand and arm activity, and voice and manner of speaking.

Keep in mind that jews are a mongrel race. They mongrelized millennia ago, and they have preserved that mongrelized core ever since. It is a mix of aspects from every major race, mostly the worst aspects. jews suffer the extra physical and mental diseases that afflict mongrels, yet jews include a trait for high intelligence though it expresses only in a total self-focus and race-focus against all others.

As mongrels, the curly black hair trait comes from the African DNA, along with the slant forehead, thick lips, and the often heavy brow ridges. It may be that the slant forehead and pronounced brows also come from old Neanderthal DNA. Larry King (photos below) and various past leaders of Israel are forehead and brow models. The convex nose is also a trait of the other “semites” the Arabs, a hybrid race. The lizard-like back shape would seem to be a variant of the fairly common flat-back flat-butt of the Mongoloid race (Asians and American Indians).

saved the criminal jew from a larceny conviction. At right, King is with Walter Cronkite who also had suspicious facial features in profile. Biographies on him offer many jew clues. Cronkite served jewry for decades as the top tv news anchor for CBS, a network founded by jew William Paley.

Jewry reserves the least jew-looking jews for various public positions, especially lead roles in Hollywood and the White House (likewise in other countries) if those jews prove to have on-camera charisma. Here is a batch of jews who are recognizable as jews to those of us who have made ourselves familiar with the main varieties of jews:

Left to right: Noah Wyle, Eric Szmanda, Josh Lucas. They don't look very jewy, do they? But Wyle and Lucas are known jews. Szmanda is a crypto-jew pretending to be Polish White.

At left is Josh Lucas again, here with an unguarded, full-out smile, very wide. Moving away from what I call the "Wyle type," we see Robert Downey Jr., a known jew whose nose is not jewy. Of course, Hollywood is probably the nose-job capital of the world. At right, Michael Landon was a known jew who starred on Bonanza with other known jews and then on his own Little House On The Prairie with other known jews.

- We must raise our familiarity of known-jew faces so that we can apply that awareness to the crypto-jews around us. In the top row above, profile views would further help identify them as jews, but all of their jew features are relatively subtle. Have you noticed how rarely tv and movies show the big, hooknosed jews in profile? They know what they're doing.

At least half of the presidents of the USA since and including Franklin Roosevelt have been jews. (For links to sources, see the article "Jews For President?") Truman and Eisenhower were known jews. Johnson was, and the Bushes are, the Sephardic kind of jews. Clinton's mystery father makes Slick Willy a likely jew whose secret continues to be protected by the jewsmedia. (Hillary Clinton is a known jew who tries to minimize her jewness as a small fraction of her blood.) Kennedy, Nixon, Ford, Carter, and Reagan seem not to have been jews. Despite being jews, the jew presidents were not the top jews of the world, just as jew Barack Obama (whose mother was a jew) is certainly not the decisionmaker of the White House, let alone of the world.

Jews have strategically mated with well-placed members of every other major race, thus there are jews who look Chinese, jews who look African (Obama, for example), and on and on. (Readers may simply search for terms such as "Chinese jews" to get more info and documentation.) Some of those hybrid jews are leaders in those races' countries. This interbreeding, along with control of international money and the U.S. War Machine, explains why nearly all of those races' countries walk in step with jewry's world agenda rather than defy the self-"chosen" Enemies Of Humanity.

For us Whites, we can add the too-wide mouth and too-wide smile to our toolkit for identifying and eliminating the scum jews infesting our country (countries).

We who are at this level of knowledge have the racial duty to act, whether we attract followers or not. Our goal and our methods — By All Means — are fully justified in self-defense, in retaliation, and in securing a future for our children and our race.

Our race invented all of the modern tools and comforts. Our race invented science. Our race is generous and tolerant (both to a fault, and awfully gullible). No other race has our combination of qualities (nor does any other race suffer our suicidal all-races compassion). We had a great, prosperous, peaceful country. We can have it again.

It is force that establishes a territory and country for a race. It is force that maintains the country against all infections and invasions. And it will be our force that re-establishes our country for our race. Otherwise, it would fall to total jew control over brownskins and blackskins, with Whites extinct.

Our record proves that we are the most admirable race of Earth. Our best are always head-and-shoulders over all of the rest.

Now, in this worst of times, is our opportunity to roar back, make history, and retake our country and direct our own future. Get to it.

Signed,

James Laffrey
